

Bonfire

Brett Dennen

Orion is on his head
And my love is out on the ledge.
Get to the Bonfire
And get undressed
My boots are caked with clay these clothes are loose and my appetite's gone but throw them in the bonfire where we belong our love is sacredwounded and naked like a sunburnt kiss
we are changing
fighting for the same thing where the lightning lives and i want to love you for the way you are not the way i am
so let's go now
back to the bonfire
where we began.i slow back into my tent to shake out the vertigo you know
