

I Ain't the Girl

Lindi Ortega

Ain't gonna tell you any lies
I gotta thing for long-haired guys
You can keep your suit and tie
Find a pretty little wife
I ain't the girl your looking for
I ain't the girl that lives next-door
I ain't the girl for you You're too clean cut with polished shoes
I like them rugged with tattoos
You drive a really fancy car
I like a truck with rusty parts
I ain't the girl your looking for
I ain't the girl that lives next door
I ain't the girl for you So go ahead darling, find somebody new
I'll never be the one you can hold your body to
If you can't light my fire babe, you will never do
I ain't the girl for you
No, I ain't the girl for you So you can go ahead and try pretend like you're some other guy
I'll never be another girl, I'll never fit into your world
I ain't the girl you're looking for
I ain't the girl that lives next-door
I ain't the girl for you So go ahead darling, find somebody new
I'll never be the one you can hold your body to
If you can't light my fire babe, you will never do
I ain't the girl for you
No, I ain't the girl for you I'll never be the kind to fit into your perfect life
The perfect wife, the perfect family I'm sorry to inform you dear
I'm not close not even near
The perfect girl will never be me So go ahead darling, find somebody new
I'll never be the one you can hold your body to
If you can't light my fire babe, you will never do
I ain't the girl for you
No, I ain't the girl for you
