

Give Me a Home

Sofia Talvik

Oh, not a word not a sigh that can't be heard But once the dust has kissed your feet you are married to this wayward beat Oh, give me a home, where the buffaloes roam Oh, endlessly blue
This is where I'll stay with you
With a sky so big it's overwhelming
Can you be my writer for a happy ending
Oh, give me a home, where the buffaloes roam
Oh, I will grow old
I will lose my faith I'm told
But once this sight has touched your eyes you are married to those endless skies
Oh, give me a home, where the buffaloes roam
Let me stay here, with the stars dear
Let me stay here, with the stars dear
Let me stay here, let me stay here Oh, give me a home, where the buffaloes roam
