You

Kingston Wall

Bigger than the air I breathe
Deeper than the ocean deep
Higher than the stars above you are
Brighter than the blazing sun
Louder than the screaming crowd
Stronger than the power of death you areIn the Heavens on the Earth
There is no one like You God
And these words are not enough
To tell of who You are
Who can know the mind of God?
Who can understand your ways?
And these words are not enough
To tell of your great name
Your love can melt the hardest heart
Your words can bring the dead to life
Nothing is impossibe for You
Awesome God, Humble king
You terrify yet welcome in
Your glory echoes all around the worldIn the Heavens on the Earth
There is no one like You god
And these words are not enough
To tell of who You are
Who can know the mind of God?
Who can understand Your ways?
And these words are not enough
To tell of Your great name
You, You, You
There's always You, You, You
Unbreakable
Unshakable
Unbeatable
You, You, You
There's always You, You, You
Take the world
But give me You
Lord Jesus YouIn the Heavens on the Earth
There's is no one like You God
And these words are not enough
To tell of who You are

Who can know the mind of God?
Who can understand Your ways?
And these words are not enough
To tell of Your great name
