I'm Not Moving

Plumtree

You're tired of living in the country
Tired of the never changing landscape that you view
I'd love to forget about those same things
I see I only wish I could do so?Now I'd like to propose a toast
To the one well all love the most
Soon he won't be will all of us on the coastAsk me to go now and I will
But I'm a fool who waits until
There's not enough left in me to fulfill
I don't get better and better I just Stay still
Of course I've only heard the best
Of how he treated all the rest
But he refused your serenading hostessDon't mean to interupt your meal
With this embarrassing appeal
I'll have to turn this into an ordeal
Just to make sure everybody understands
How I feel
I wish I could say goodbye
You wouldn't hear me
I don't repeat things the second time
I don't, I don't repeat things
