Birdcall Morning

Joe Walsh

Early birdcall morning
In a milkweed cloudy sky
Sets me free, without a warning
Wonder whyAnd if my eyes aren't open
And if I'm too blind to see
Would you show me birdcall morning
Set me freeAnd if you don't want to
I do, you know I do
Sing the song, sing along
It don't matter if you know the tune
That's the way it goesI don't know, she makes me think I do
Comin' in, she comes again
She breaks ice, but she don't fall through
To the birdcall morning
