

Women

Lou Reed

I love women, I think they're great
They're a solace to a world in a terrible state
They're a blessing to the eyes, a balm to the soul
What a nightmare to have no women in the world I love women, I love women
I love women, we all love women I used to look at women in the magazines
I know that it was sexist but I was in my teens
I was very bitter, all my sex was on the sly
I couldn't keep my hands off women and I won't till I die I love women, ah, I love women
We love women, we all love women A woman's love can lift you up and women can inspire
I feel like buying flowers and hiring a celestial choir
A choir of castratis to serenade my love
They'd sing a little Bach for us and then we'd make love I love women, I love women
We all love women, we love women
