

What's Up Now

Scary Kids Scaring Kids

What's Up Now! I'm not giving up just yet, I won't give up 'till I lose, Your ideas aren't bent by any means,
But I'll try to follow through, I'm stuck in a corner now with nothing left to lose, This room is filled with expressionless faces, and one of them has a clue, And you know that just won't do, and you know that just won't do, Don't say your innocent to soon, don't say your innocent to soon, Give it all away, give it all away,
give it all...
everything for you What is it that makes you think that you can bend the rules?
You really think that you are off the hook it's coming back for you Can't run away from fate that's something we all know no matter how hard you try you'll still have no place left to go but you know that just won't do but you know that just won't do Don't say you innocent to soon, don't say you innocent to soon, Give it all away,
give it all away,
give it all...
anything for you Give it all away,
give it all away,
give it all...
anything for you If it happens then it happens, if it happens then it happens,
if it happens then it happens,
if it happens then it happens, (what is it that you're trying to prove)
if it happens then it happens,
if it happens then it happens, (what makes you think that you can bend the rules)
if it happens then it happens,
if it happens then it happens, (what is it that you're trying to prove)
if it happens then it happens,
if it happens then it happens, (what makes you think that you can BREAK!) Everything single wish came true I will lie in front of you I hope you're living your fairytale well it's all down hill from here There's nothing left to feel So swallow your pride and choke back your tears

So swallow your pride and choke back your tears
I said
WHAT'S UP NOW!!
