Little Sister

Youngstown

Verse 1:
Hey, little sister
Did that boy make you cry, did he steal your heart away with a look in his eye
Are you feeling like your world is over now
Hey, little sister
Everything will be alright, what you feel is gonna change all your tears will dry
Time has a way of healing hearts that break somehow
Don't give up on love cause this one's let you down
Chorus:
Tonight you've lost lost the only one you want
Seems all you've got all you've got left is yesterday
But time won't stop (uh-uh)
And when all your crying stops tomorrow comesVerse 2:
Hey, little sister you've gotta trust me (Just a part of love)
Soon you'll open up your eyes and the sun is gonna shine a light you never seen
There's so much more to love than what you're feeling now
Someday you'll find someone who'll never let you downChorus:
Tonight you've lost lost the only one you want
Seems all you've got all you've got left is yesterday (all you've got is yesterday)
But time won't stop (it don't stop)
And when all your crying stops tomorrow comes (tomorrow comes)Bridge:
It's alright, hey little sister
And you gotta wake up and face up that breaking up's just a part of loving
So his kiss hit you hard it broke your heart but it don't mean nothing
You gotta wake up and face up that breaking up's just a part of loving
The hurt you feel, yes it's real, but it's gonna heal as a new day's coming
