Anyway

Cee Lo Green

I know I'm stingy with my money and it's hard to get some from me but you still love me anyway your mother seems to like me but your father wants to fight me but you still love me anyway and i take you out on dates and i always show up late but you still love me anyway there's no one else like this that would put up with my shit and still love me anyway [chorus]because no matter what i do i know i can count on you cause baby you still love me anyway for worse or for better you make me better
i know you still love me anyway because no matter what i do
you make me better
[cee-lo]i only see you every now and then and i'm on the road again but you still love me anyway and when this relationship's not working that's when all your friends start flirting and my eyes may wander but that is not okay so i make it up to you with a brand new pair of shoes if you still love me anyway and i will surely miss the way you put up my sh-t i'll make it up to you some day [chorus]cause no matter what i do

you make me better
you still love me anyway you still love me any, still love me any still love me anyway
still love me anyway [bridge]i said? mmm, mmm no one loves me quite like you do girl it's unconditional unconditional Unconditional love!
[chorus]cause no matter what i do
you make me better
