Two Kinds Of People

The Magnetic Fields

There are two kinds of people
A, my love and I
B, other
Two kinds of people
1, the gray and
2, me and my lover
All people fall into two camps
That ever twain shall be

Those lost in darkness without lamps
And then, my love and me
All people fall into two camps
That ever twain shall be
Those lost in darkness without lamps
And then, my love and me
