Allright

Quetzal

(Hinkel / Freudenthaler)
Can you hear me?
Baby, wake up!
You're a little late,
it's nearly ten.
You look awful without the make-up and if you don't stop you will kiss the end Allright, allright
Say did you ever think about it
Allright, allright
It's allright
when your life gets you
your life gets you down
It's allright
when your life gets you
your life gets you down
You're going down instead of going up Say do you think that I am an elevator I'm sick an tired of it Baby stop!
You never do it
'cause you do it later
Allright, allright
Say did you ever think about it

Allright, allright
It's allright
when your life gets you
your life gets you down
It's allright
when your life gets you
It makes no difference to me how you feel You've got me waiting for so long Don't mind, my direction's not your physical attraction Bye, bye karma!
I'm sorry baby but you've got to face it now

I'm not the one I think you will see You always tell me that you'll mend your ways
I don't believe it anymore - it kills me Allright, allright
It's allright
when your life gets you
your life gets you down
It's allright
when your life gets you
