

L'enfant Sauvage

GOJIRA

So god I've been trying to match
It doesn't work
I'm trying
I don't know
the aberration of this world
I try to deal with
I've killed a part of me that was aching
The pain is gone
But denial runaway from institutions
I owe my self life There's no way I will respond expression anger flowing through me
There is light in this world I fight fuck
The reason you won't leave this cage
Betrayed your child with desire
But you won't attempt to reveal yourself
Forgot to create your own life Anger
Lies
Denial This precious anger
What lays inside of us won't last forever
Don't fear to let it out
Branches of clues the wolf is a master
