

All the Joy

Moonchild

i heard a whisper in the breeze long before i took the time to stop and listenoh the feeling that came over me slowly sugar sweet
never never leave mei thought it was too soon i had fallen apart right in front of you
paradise
just in timelike a melody you came to me carried softly by the breath of spring blessed with time enough to see it through all the joys of love I'll give to youi'd grown accustomed to the way time replaced the love i work to save with distanceoh to know that you are mine to love for some time i feel free
never never leave mei thought it was too soon i had fallen apart
all the joys of love I'll give to you
