Soulless

Soulless

Spineless and false you are creeping through time
Your flag's turning with the wind, your advantage is prime Feathering your nest is your one and only law
Treachery and fraud is the sense that you are living for
Living on a lie, a mind- killing spell
You'll never ever learn 'cause you're living in your self-made hell
You're soulless, when the fire of evil burns in your heart
You're soulless, 'cause hate and greed's gonna tear you apart
The sledgehammer method is the way in which you act
You double-cross and cheat, you never show respect
Spiderlike you crawl, you spin your web of lies
Eternally you'll lose, 'cause truth will rule the dice
Living on a lie, a mind- killing spell
You'll never ever learn 'cause you're living in your self-made hell
You're soulless, when the fire of evil burns in your heart
You're soulless, 'cause hate and greed's gonna tear you apart
Conceit and dense, imposture is your call
Self-destructed clown, imbecility is your fall
Reality and truth cut you down to size
Duck your rotten head, be prepared to pay the price
Living on a lie, a mind- killing spell
You'll never ever learn 'cause you're living in your self-made hell
You're soulless, when the fire of evil burns in your heart
You're soulless, 'cause hate and greed's gonna tear you apart
You're soulless
You're soulless, heart of stone
You're soulless
You're soulless, bad to the bone
