

Bobaflex Warriors

Bobaflex

The elders of the world will never understand the new humans
Their way is nonviolent, they're passive
They need protection and that's where you come in
For there will be a war, it's inevitable
I need you all to be prepared for the worst
My soldiers Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
Now this human's on a march
Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
Shave your heads and forget God and family
Define the self through logic and worship knowledge
Symbol of a brave face placed against a void
Many begin to follow it and dinosaurs grow paranoid
Science fiction band and a strong song
It was simple propaganda to connect with the new humans
The powers that be would now see them as a threat
So he called upon his followers and this is what he said
Would you die for this
A better life than this
Are you my soldier till the end?
I scream to the world, "Bow your heads"
Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
Now this human's on a march
Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
A leader will rise from the east who speaks of a new breed
A seed in the imagination of a generation
New humans inherit the earth, they are the masters
Protected by Bobaflex all throw your blasters
Would you die for this
A better life than this
Are you my soldier till the end
[Incomprehensible] Now if you see that Bobaflex band
Fill them full of lead and make sure they're all dead
Within the album hides a code
To seduce the youth for new human goals
The leader is inside myself and I control the rise and fall
Open up your mind and scream defiance in the name
Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
Now this human's on a march
Bobaflex warriors throw up your blasters
