

Find Me

Robin Trower

You won't find me
In the drifting sky
Ohh, oh, oh
The drifting sky Take your place
In the line to the doorway
It's your place
In the line through the door You can find me
On the other side
Find me
Other side You won't find me
In the shifting sands
Ohh, oh, oh
The shifting sands In the heart
Of all this confusion
There may be one
Who touched your life before You can find me
On the other side
Find me
On the other side You won't find me
On the battleground
Ohh, oh, oh
The battleground Just one hour
Is sometimes like a lifetime
Stuck to the past
But there will come a day When you can find me
On the other side
Find me
Other side
