Young Revolutionaries

Big Mountain

In't no use dodging a subject soul
Avoid in a conversation
'Cause we are no life
Never makes no sense in this ya wayward station, so

Dry your tears and no more crying
For the end is not near
Jah will always well prepare us
In this chaos our goal is clear

The battle in your soul
Is the one that matters most
And the strength within your heart
Is not tough on earthly sort

And if you want to combat the pain
You must avoid the silly earthly games
Stay strong young revolutionaries, don't you afraid
Stay strong young revolutionaries, don't you afraid

Dry your tears and no more crying
For the end is not near
Jah will always well prepare us
In this chaos our goal is clear

The battle in your soul
Is the one that matters most
And the strength within your heart
Is not tough on earthly sort

The battle in your soul
Is the one that matters most
And the strength within your heart
Is not tough on earthly sort

And if you want to combat the pain
You must avoid the silly earthly games
Stay strong young revolutionaries, don't you afraid
Stay strong young revolutionaries, don't you afraid
Stay strong young revolutionaries, don't you afraid

Stay strong young revolutionaries, don't you afraid
