Nazca

So I'll write these words now for you my friend
here after all this time we may never sing this one it's just here as a light to help you When the power goes out like the moments you might shake yourself awake from those horrible dreams the only ones we never talk aboutThe glare of madness in grown-ups' eyes the rage that takes the whole room
by surprise
this vicious trap the male cultural disguise is the one we fight againstWe Go, We Go, We Go the one we fight against We Go, We Go, We GoSo I'll write these words now
it's just here
as a light to help youThe sickness the silence as you hide in your room wishing so hard they'd forget you're alive
but
so the sight of broken things won't mean a pound of flesh and the time you speak up won't be repaid by fists praying not to be missed the night you ran awayWe Go, We Go, We Go the night you ran away
We Go, We Go, We Go

as a light to help youThis violence passes for an apology
the trickle down in our societyThis is for the peace you never had
This is for the peace
we never had
we never hadHow do we guard the door against your Dad?We go, We go, We go
as a light to help you
