Silent dancer

Madness killing in the name of, making up your mystic blue.
Visions coming all the way, no escape today, fade in the air.
Behind your sunglasses, you have your fantasies, escape from all these streets,
a life with no repeat.

Silent dancer
Silent dancer

Fancy modern boy today, salty waterâ€™s on your lips.
Self made, sexual attention, distress on the pier, kept you away.
Behind your sunglasses, you have your fantasies, escape from all these streets,
a life with no repeat.
