The Letter

Acceptance

I take it all to heart
Don't point the finger, choose the winner, hold your own
It's never been always
Who's the liar? I'm the coward, the letter read like this
Of all the sinners I walk before
I can't deny
Somehow you're seeing it
So you're the one who took the fall
And it's bringing us together, together
Don't ask me why
Somehow I'm seeing blue
And I'm breaking after all
This could last forever, forever
The choice has always been
To take advantage ride it to the top
Still I'm caught again
I see this coming, see this coming through
Of all the sinners I walk before
I can't deny
Somehow you're seeing it
So you're the one who took the fall
And it's bringing us together, together
Don't ask me why
Some how I'm seeing blue
And I'm breaking after all
If this could last forever, forever
We'll see if I start coming clean
You'll see that I'm still missing
I can't deny
Somehow you're seeing it
So you're the one who took the fall
And it's bringing us together, together
Don't ask me why
Somehow I'm seeing blue
And I'm breaking after all
If this could last forever, forever
I can't deny
Somehow you're seeing it
So you're the one who took the fall

And it's bringing us together, together
Don't ask me why
Somehow I'm seeing blue
And I'm breaking after all
If this could last forever, forever
