Silent House

Dixie Chicks

These walls have eyes
Rows of photographs and faces like mine
Who do we become
Without knowing where we started from?
It's true I'm missing you
As I stand alone in your room
Everyday that will pass you by Every name that you won't recall
Everything that you made by hand
Everything that you know by heart
And I will try to connect all the pieces you left
I will carry it on and let you forget
And I'll remember the years when your mind was clear
How the laughter and life filled up this silent house
One room, two single beds
In the closet hangs your favorite dress
The books that you read
Are in scattered piles of paper shreds
Everything that you made by hand
Everything that you know by heart
I will try to connect all the pieces you left
I will carry it on and let you forget
And I'll remember the years when your mind was clear
How the laughter and life filled up this silent house
Silent house
In the garden off the living room
A chill fills the air and the lilies bloom
And I will try to connect all the pieces you left
I will carry it on and let you forget
And I'll remember the years when your mind was clear
How the laughter and life filled up this
And I will try to connect all the pieces you left
I will carry it on and let you forget
And I'll remember the years when your mind was clear
How the laughter and life filled up this silent house
Silent house
