Melody's Song

Closet Monster

What would it take to see your smile,
And what would it take to hear your laugh again,
What would it take to trade our tears in for a better day,
If we only had our way,We would erase the passing year,
Take back what isn't here,
And always remember,
We'd give a decade of our own,
To bring back what's lost and gone,
And always remember,
And always remember.Can we see you in our dreams,
Take hold of the memory,
And always remember,
And with every gentle breeze,
Comes the sweetest melody,
And always remember,
And always remember.Wherever you are,
One day we'll be there with you,
Wherever you are,
One day we'll be there with you,
With you...
