Killing for Love

Jose Gonzalez

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
What's the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill forYou've got a heart on fire
Bursting with desire
You've got a heart filled with passion
Will you let it burn for hate or compassionWhat's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
Whats the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill forWhat's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love
Whats the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill forKilling for love
Killing for love
Killing for love
Killing for loveYou've got a heart on fire
Bursting with desire
You've got a heart filled with passion
Will you let it burn for hate or compassionWhat's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
Whats the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill forKilling for love
Killing for love
Killing for love
