

Killing for Love

Jose Gonzalez

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
What's the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for You've got a heart on fire
Bursting with desire
You've got a heart filled with passion
Will you let it burn for hate or compassion What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
Whats the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love
Whats the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for Killing for love
Killing for love
Killing for love
Killing for love You've got a heart on fire
Bursting with desire
You've got a heart filled with passion
Will you let it burn for hate or compassion What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
Whats the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for Killing for love
Killing for love
Killing for love
