

Everchanging (Warped Tour 2006 Compilation)

Rise Against

In the face of change
Is when she turned to me and said
"I'm not sure anymore?? And there amidst the waves
And the cloudless skies
That blanket the year before
I watch my life wash ashore Have you ever been a part of something That you thought would never end?
And then of course it did Have you ever felt the weight inside you Pulling away inside your skin?
And then something had to give Now the lines are drawn
Is this feeling gone?
The best parts of this have come and gone
And now that is all this is With the reasons clear
We'll spend another year
Without direction, full of fear
But now things will be different There's nothing simple when it comes to you and I Always something in this everchanging life
And it probably always will Now that time is getting harder to come by
The same arguments are always on our mind
We've killed this slowly fading light Now something has kept me here too long and you can't leave me if I'm already gone Make the same mistakes we're always hanging on Break the promises we're always leaning on
All this time spent waking up
Now I keep this line open to get this call from you as you speak the words
That keep me coming back to you now this time it's all different Now something has kept me here too long and now I'm gone...
