Born

STARCARDIGAN

What in the world were you born to do?
What in the world were you born to do?
Beat me and tease me, I'll take the abuse
'Cause I know that I was born to love you
(Hey Yeah)
Your so electric
(Hey Yeah)
And I'm on fire
(Hey Yeah)
Till it burns me
(Hey Yeah)
I don't know why
It feels like home, in your eyes
And we'll stare alone until we try
What in the world were you born to do?
What in the world were you born to do?
Beat me and tease me, I'll take the abuse
'Cause I know that I was born to love you
(Hey Yeah, Hey Yeah, Hey Yeah)
These roads I take
(Hey Yeah)

All lead to you
(Hey Yeah)
Can't find the exit
(Hey Yeah)
Just let me through
It feels like home, in your eyes
And we'll stare alone until we try
What in the world were you born to do?
What in the world were you born to do?
The price that I'm paying 'cause I don't see the truth
It's wrong that you gone,
Your all I had to lose
When the dust starts to settle
Coating your beauty, now I can see inside
Listen to love songs, sound unconvincing
'Cause they're not mine
What in the world were you born to do?

What in the world were you born to do?
Beat me and tease me, I'll take the abuse
'Cause I know that I was born to love you
Yeah, I know that I was born to love you
