

Too Tough to Die

Ramones

Take me through this darkness
Carry me through this world
Insane and lost confusion
Forever always pushing for more
No, you can't cry
Oh, you can't cry
When you're too tough to die
This grave which bares my soul
This grave which bares my name
Lord I ask no questions
Hold me once again
No, you can't cry
Oh, you can't cry
When you're too tough to die
Forever high, always high, always high
Forever high, always high, always high
Forever high, always high, always high
Forever high, always high, always high
Forever high, always high, always high
Forever high, always high, always high
Forever high, always high, always high
Forever high, always high and high
No, you can't cry
Oh, you can't cry
When you're too tough to die
