

Laid to Rest

Sinergy

I lay down on snow covered sheets of loneliness
And I weep, I'm crying out for you
I'm longing just to have one more chanceAnd right now my hands are reaching out to you
I stand here frozen with fear
My heart is shattering in two
Please don't leave me here to live alone
My world is gray without you
I am so lost, no where to goAlone I'm filled with emptiness
Alone I call your name
Alone no hope remains
And alone I bid farewellSo long I end my emptiness
So long no name to call
So long no need for hope
And so long I leave this lifeLay me down this is my final resting place
I have failed, I let you down my dear
This shame growing inside of meSo goodbye, I have to leave my world behind
I've fallen too many times
Can't take rejection anymore
Now it's time to meet my destiny
I wont' be missed anyway
I'll fall into serenityAlone I'm filled with emptiness
Alone I call your name
Alone no hope remains
And alone I bid farewellSo long I end my emptiness
So long no name to call
So long no need for hope
And so long, I leave this lifeAlone I'm filled with emptiness
Alone I call your name
Alone no hope remains
And alone I bid farewellSo long I end my emptiness
So long no name to call
So long no need for hope
And so long, I leave this lifeGoodbye
