Kings of Leon

A single book of matches gonna burn what's standing in the way.
Roaring down the mountain, they're calling on the fire brigade.
Carry out the pictures and tell the kids that I'm okay.
If'n I'm forgotten, you'll remember me for the day. I won't ever be your cornerstone.
I All the black inside me is slowly seeping from the bone.
Everything I cherish is slowly dying or it's gone.
Little shaking babies and drunkards seem to all agree,
Once the show gets started it's bound to be a sight to see. I won't ever be your cornerstone.
I don't want to be here holding on.
I won't ever be your cornerstone.
I Watch her run, can you feel it?
Watch her run, can you feel it?
Watch her run, can you feel it?
Watch her run, can you feel it? I won't ever be your cornerstone.
I don't want to be here holding on.
I won't ever be your cornerstone.
