Lila

Rodello's Machine

Lila I sing this song for you, your beautiful even when your down. Know this and never talk yourself out of it.

Lila it's all inside your head, Eleanor Roosevelt said " no one can make you feel inferior without your consent"

So let your light shine, without holding it in love yourself and don't give in and when you feel the harmony smile with suns of the galaxies

Lila your perfect like you are A sublime creation, but you play yourself small Such a waste, such a waste of your beauty girl

Lila the key to it is you Turn it when you feel its true and never look back

And let your light shine, without holding it in love yourself and don't give in
smile with suns of the galaxies
