

Party Like a Princess

Jamie Grace

When I walked into the party everybody just stopped.
Even the DJ wasn't ready to see me without---a boy who isn't ready to be a king. So tell me why would I be chasing him to be his queen?
Don't you know Who my Daddy is?
Don't you know what my Daddy did?
Don't you know Who my Daddy is?
He paid it all---I'm the belle of this ball, so I'm gonna Party like a Princess, party like a princess, party like a princess---
I don't need a prince to party like a princess
Party like a princess
(repeat 'don't you know', repeat chorus a zillion times)
