

Camouflage

Nneka

Watch 'em, watch 'em, catch 'em, catch 'em, oh god
Watch 'em, watch 'em, catch 'em, catch 'em, oh god

Watch 'em, watch 'em, catch them, catch 'em, oh god
Who you want food, oh god, who you want yam
Everything you do now we don't see before
You ting that we dey play is destined to fail
We no say our battle is spirtual one
Spirtual one in high and low places

(Bible references)

Dey

(They)

Say everything for the tief

(Thief)

What dey for the owner?

(What is there for the owner)

Say the light will not shine without darkness
God say the truth will be revealed
And the world must be seen on revelation day
I'm not supposed to tell you, you no be small peckin'
(I shouldn't have to tell you this you're not a child, you're grown)
If you kill person share the blood on your hand

Watch 'em, watch 'em, catch 'em, catch 'em, oh god
Watch 'em, watch 'em, catch 'em, catch 'em, oh god

You be walking away going astray
Facing the world with a camouflage face
Oh, let them see who you are
Who is to judge when we all dwell in sin

Walking away going, astray
Facing the world with a camouflage face
Oh, let them see who you are
Not one not one Free from within

Now we're free from sin, now we're without blame
But we've chosen to live, to walk in the ways of Jah

(God)

Beware of wolves in sheep, clothing
All those who smile in you're face
And will sell your trust like Judas and Jesus
They will sit by you're table and try to take your place
As you turn your back they'll set you with a man or woman
You must stay alive

You be walking away, going astray
Facing the world with a camouflage face
Oh, let them see who you are
Who is to judge when we all dwell in sin

Walking away going astray
Facing the world with a camouflage face
Oh, let them see who you are
Not one not one Free from within
