

Lorelei

Tom Tom Club

Lorelei
Maybe you like a little melody
It's not the words that move me Lorelei, Lorelei, Lorelei
Maybe you like a lullaby
Now I can't remember why Lorelei, Lorelei, Lorelei
Intuition's leading us where
I don't know yet Lorelei, Lorelei
Something's happening
Hard to place it, hard to hide it Lorelei, Lorelei
What is happening
I'm not sure, I guess you know it
Lorelei, Lorelei Deep in the jungle of thought
There comes a clearing
And in the clearing, there is a pool The pool is deep, the water cool
This is the thought
The thought is you Lorelei, Lorelei, Lorelei
Intuition's leading us where
I don't know yet Lorelei, Lorelei
Something's happening
Hard to place it, hard to hide it Lorelei, Lorelei
What is happening
I'm not sure, I guess you know it Lorelei, Lorelei
Across the wasted plain
Across the twisted dunes
Beyond the colored lights
The mountain looms The air is thin, the door within
The sea of light, the light is you Lorelei, Lorelei, Lorelei
Lorelei, Lorelei, Lorelei
