Fire

Josh Joplin Group

You say you know me now
Well, I don't think we figure out
Who we ever are, who we ever areListen to yourself
And sing another song, sing another song
And don't let them make you feel you don't belong
Just on fireYou say you are not sure
How to live life anymore
No one ever is, no one ever isListen to yourself
And sing another song, sing another song
And don't let them make you feel you're not strong
Just on fireAnother stage of empty rage
And no one, no one is listening
No one cares and no one is listening
No one dares, you're just on fireAnd you say you love me
But I'm not sure you truly see
Who I really am, who I really amListen to yourself
And sing another song, sing another song
And don't let me make you feel like you were wrong
Just on fire, I'm just on fire
