

I Lie

Will Kimbrough

It's a song for the 1%.

I lie. Why? Because I can.
It's the pleasure and the privilege
of the richest people in the land.

Don't you understand?
I don't give a damn for you.
I don't give a damn for you.
That's the truth.
I lie because I can.

It's not sealin' if it's legal.
Let's just change the rules.
Besides, it's middle management's fault
if they can't cook my books right.
The're fired! They're fools!
Let them be the ones who get caught.

Taxes are for losers. I'm a winner.
Ya see, money is the magic stuff that set me free.

And I lie. Why? Because I can.
It's the pleasure and the privilege
of the richest people in the land.

Don't you understand?
I don't give a damn for you.
I don't give a damn for you.
That's the truth.
I lie because I can.

Because I can.
I lie because I can.
