

Ozilline

Indigo Girls

{He did, he observed Saturday as the sabbath
What, what kind of faith does that make him?

Uhh, he didn't have one

Oh, okay

He didn't believe in any one thing

He would go out on the street and all the kids would play the
With a drum like thing, some, some kind of an instrument, yeah
And Mama played the organ, she had a organ and she played that
And she got a real big kick out of it, but didn't have the patience

[Incomprehensible]} Oh oh Ozilline

The moon is almost full

And you don't need a torchlight

To see into these woods

Now sister bring the medicine

To keep you from decline

But it's the waxing and the waning

That's always on your mind I said, "Oh Ozilline

I feel for you"

I said, "Oh Ozilline

I feel for you" As soon as the corn's in

The deer will come to feed

And when the berry ripens

The bird will come to eat

You build by the river

It's pretty but you'll pay

'Cause the springtime brings the flood plain

And your cutback washes away I said, "Oh Ozilline

I feel for you"

I said, "Oh Ozilline

I feel for you" And I had to put the dog down

Before I hit the road

Yeah, I watched that sweet old life

Become a bag of bones

So when your body's broken

And your heart wants to give in

You hear that hoot owl callin'

Just like she was a friend I said, "Oh Ozilline

I feel for you"

I said, "Oh Ozilline

I feel for you"I said, "Ozilline, she don't let you cry"
If you ask her where it hurts
I said, "Ozilline, she don't let you cry"
If you ask her where it hurts
She said,"What a blessed sky"
