

Alone in the Dark

Blood Red Boots

I remember every bitter word.
All your tears flood my mind.
I been starin' at this empty glass.
And all my fears come to life. Here I stand.
Alone in the dark.
Shout your name.
I will sing to the stars. I can't love you anymore.
I surrender this war.
There's no words.
There's no time.
There's no way.
There's no fix
For the scars.
That we made. Alone together in a broken dream.
Fast asleep in our bed of lies
