For Me

Grammatrain

remember me, think you know my name i never knew how to play your game. and could you, could you cry, for me yeah and bleed your eyes my soul to keepi'd love to know your reasons you keep your eyes away from mea world of peace, where you pretend to live i'll stay away so you don't have to thinkand could you, could you cry for me yeah and bleed your eyes, my soul to keep i'd love to know your reasons you keep your eyes away from me
