

Lovely

Boyz II Men

Lying here with my arms above my head
Hungry for your love, waiting to be fed
Your body speaks to mine, and I understood every word
Told me that you needed me, at least that's what I heard
I'm trying to hold on but I don't know for how long
Don't make me wait too long Love me, lovely, love me
Lovely, lovely, love me right
Breathe me, taste me, touch me
Take me in your arms tonight
All I wanna do
Watch you, watch me, feel you
Fill me up with pure delight
That makes it easier to
Love thee, lovely, love me
Lovely, lovely, love me right
Love me right Why don't you tell me what you want from me, girl?
Let me dive into your ocean, so I can find your precious pearls
As the moon invades our bedroom and reveals the sweat on your back
It increases my intensity to go there and never come back
I'm trying to hold on, but I don't know for how long, baby Love me, lovely, love me
Lovely, lovely, love me right
Breathe me, taste me, touch me
Take me in your arms tonight
All I wanna do
Watch you, watch me, feel you
Fill me up with pure delight
Love thee, lovely, love me
Lovely, lovely, love me right
Love me right Oh how you tease me, driving me crazy
Want you to please me, so come on lady
Close enough to touch, she takes a step back
See her getting excited, by the way I react
Moving in slow, I can smell her perfume
She's moving closer still, I know my times coming soon
Baby, are you ready? Can't take it, no more, ohh
I don't think you ready, for all that I have in store
Trying to hold on, but I don't know for how long Come on girl
I need you
Take me right now

Love you
Love you
Love me, love me right now
Touch me
Touch me
I'll make you feel so good
Right now Love me, lovely, love me right
Take me in your arms tonight
Fill me up with pure delight
I want you so bad
Love me, lovely, love me right
Take me in your arms tonight
Fill me up with pure delight
Lovely, lovely, love me right
