

Corner of Me

Neil Cribbs

Thereâ€™s a secret
An old man told me of the good life
That livingâ€™s only about half-right
When you live it on your own
Itâ€™s a feeling
You have inside you when you keep it
Closer that happiness you need it
Above dreaming alone

And then your hazel eyes
Opened and blinded me from hard times
And they reminded me of the right side
Of what I wanted to be
There in the moonlight
The sand around us became fireflies
And what I found became the soul divine
In this corner of me

And when I take your hand
I smile and think about the old man
Who prophesized about my lifeâ€™s plan
And told me what I couldnâ€™t see
Here in this great house
Of life I find myself in shadows
And darkness comes in where the walls close
You are the light in this corner of me

I think about you
I think about me
I think about everything we wanted to be
I think about love
I think about chance
I think itâ€™s above and beyond circumstance
I think about fate
I think about life
I think about giving and taking and sacrifice
I think about storms
I think about skies
I think itâ€™s out of our hands and love has decided.

Lyrics submitted by Foo.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>