

Blues Away

Erasure

Can you see this predilection
Rushing through my head
Was a morning full of circumstance
I was seeing red
Put my blues awayNavigation gone astray
Went any way I could
Haven't got the time of day
Cannot see why I should
Put my blues awayI can hope, I can pray
Until you find me somedayAlways had my reservations
Who am I blame?
Walked into the ring of fire
Heart in a wall of flames
Put my blues awayMy emotion running riot
Through the neighborhood
Screaming in the dead of night
I wish to be understood
Put my blues awayI can hope, I can pray
Until you find me somedayI can hope, I can pray
Until you find me somedayNavigation gone astray
Went any way I could
Haven't got the time of day
Cannot see why I should
Put my blues awayI can hope, I can pray
Until you find me somedayI can hope, I can pray
Until you find me someday, hey heyTell me where you are Hey, little darlin'
'Cause I ain't got 20/20 vision
And I know you're here somewhere
And it's nearly bedtime
And I'm getting lonelyHey, little darlin'
Tell me where you are
'Cause I ain't got 20/20 vision
And I know you're here somewhere
And it's nearly bedtime
And I'm getting lonely
