Jaded

A Perfect Murder

You think you are the next big thing
You look so fucking cool now
You're acting like a superstar
Telling everyone about your bullshitSo long and never come back
So long and don't cross me againYou can say that you grew up
You can say that you're over this now
I can tell say that you're fucking lameSo long and never come back
So long and don't cross me againNever cross me againYou were all about, being young until I die
Now you laugh at those days
'Cause it's so cool to be jadedSo long and never come backAnd now that you can't look me in the eyes
I see your bullshit and all your liesSo long and never come back
