

I Adore You

Daniel Sahuleka

I maybe not romantic
I maybe not poetic
Sometimes I'm not that fluent
To find those magic words

I wish that I could show you emotion
How can I give a notion
To use all my attention
To say how deeply I adore you

I hope you will forgive me
The moments when I'm clumsy
The truth is I'm uncertain
When we're about to make love

And my jokes they cover my confusion
Though it's not my intention
To tease you with this nonsense
You should know how deeply I adore you

Don't reject me
You could hurt me
Although I seem so silly
But it'll hurt me

I'm maybe different
As you've discovered
But I'm getting warm inside
Whenever you are near me

I'm no longer lonely
Don't ever leave me
'cause I can't stand
The coldness when you are gone

Don't reject me
You could hurt me
Although I seem so silly
But it'll hurt me

I'm maybe different
As you've discovered
But I'm getting warm inside
Whenever you are near me

I'm no longer lonely
Don't ever leave me
'cause I can't stand
The coldness when you are gone
