

Earth is a Much Sweeter Planet

Wayne Haun

Earth is a much sweeter planet when Christmas comes around

I'm sure the angels began it as a way to let wonder abound

Hearts are lighter

stars are brighter

hugs are tighter now

Earth is a much sweeter planet
when Christmas comes around.

Love is the elegant season dressed up in winter white an unlikely child is the reason for this jolly occasion tonight moods are lifting time is shifting

snow is drifting high

Love is the elegant season dressed up in winter white. So here we are you and me just the way it should be lost in the glitter and gladness good things are all I can see

Earth is a much sweeter planet
when Christmas comes around

as a way to let kindness abound

Hearts are lighter

when Christmas comes around.
