Blood From a Stone

Circa Survive

Every moment I stand there and wait I recall
How you told me you don't care
It was there that you ruptured the seal in the wall
That time cannot repairLetting it be what it is
It's impossible to know what you need
When you seem so emotionlessWhat'll bring you back to life?
Machine beware turn it back againJust wanted to know every word that was said
So many were unclear
And I didn't notice if anything changed
Until you left me here
Setting it free with the wind
Seems impossible that we'd let it be what it is
So emotionlessWhat'll bring you back to life?
Machine beware turn it back again
What'll bring you back to life?
Machine beware turn it back againYour stories never end
Our time is now suspended
I never feared man
So why won't you let me in this time?What'll bring you back to life?
What'll bring you back?
I wanna bring you back
Your stories never end
Our time is now suspended
I never feared man
So why won't you let me in this time?
