

Whisperin'

Langhorne Slim & The Law

There is something I wanna talk about
But lately, you ain't listening to me
Last night on my pillow
There was another man whispering to you
And I found a poem in your jean jacket
I'm reading lies written all over your face
Last night on my pilow
There was another man whispering to you
If you're dissatisfied with the love that I provide
Why do you cry that you miss me?
Last night on my pilow
There was another man whispering to you
Well, how do you sleep at night holding another
Then reapply your lipstick to kiss me?
Last night on my pilow
There was another man whispering to you
Whispering to you
Whispering to you
Heard he's been whispering to you
To you
Now you can keep
You can keep that pillow
You can keep that son of a bitch
That's been whispering to you
Keep that pillow
Keep that son of a bitch
That's been whispering
