Wanted It To Be

Sister Hazel

It's your world
And I was just someone in it
I never wanted to be your problem
No, no, no
And it's your life
And I just wanted to see you live it
Be the one to help you solve them
I wanted, I wanted it to be
I wanted, I wanted it to be, yeah yeah
Never claimed to be no savior
I never claimed to be no saint
I'm just another tool who tried to love you
I saw the ones before me
Then I saw the one who took my place
Took a lot of time just to get on by you

I wanted, I wanted it to be
I wanted, I wanted it to be, yeah yeah
I wanted, I wanted it to be
I wanted, I wanted it to be
I wanted, I wanted it to be
I wanted, I wanted it to be, yeah yeah
I wanted, I wanted it to be, yeah yeah
I wanted, I wanted, I wanted it to be
Said it's your world
And I was just someone in it
I never wanted to be your problem
No, no, no, no, no
