

Faces

Tamyra Gray

Playground, voices speak again
Thoughts of how we were in my head?
Tell me how we lost that innocence?
Like a child waking from a dream
Everything's not what it seemed
You were never really a friend to me, noMust've thought I couldn't see it
That you were only down for the ride
And out for yourself
Now your bound by the life you left behind'Cuz you kick me when I'm down, trap me when I'm free
Cut me with your lies then sit back and watch it bleed
I think your losin' grip, baby your in too deep
Tell me which one of your faces?Baby your so good at bein' what you ain't
Betta hold your breath, 'cuz honey it's too late
You've run right outta time, baby your in too deep
Tell me which one of your faces is it gonna be?You pulled the wool right before my eyes
I was blinded by your disguise
Young and naive didn't wanna face reality, no no
Without the mask where will you hide?
Can't find yourself lost in your lies?
Whatcha think that I'd just sit back and let you use me, noMust've thought I couldn't see it
But the tears'll be yours instead of mine
Now the charade is over
I'm leavin' you behindTo you kick me when I'm down, trap me when I'm free
Cut me with your lies then sit back and watch it bleed
I think your losin' grip, baby your in too deep
Tell me which one of your faces?Baby your so good at bein' what you ain't
Betta hold your breath 'cuz honey it's too late
You've run right outta time, baby your in too deep
Tell me which one of your faces is it gonna be?Sorry's just a game you like to play to ease the pain
But words ain't good enough when it's all in vain
Is that what you think, I'm just that weak
That you could walk all over me
You betta think againYou kick me when I'm down trap me when I'm free
Cut me with your lies then sit back and watch it bleed
I think your losin' grip, baby your in too deep
Tell me which one of your faces?Baby your so good at bein' what you ain't
You betta hold your breath now 'cuz honey its too late
Runnin' outta time, baby your in too deep
Tell me which one of your faces is it gonna be?You cut me with your lies then you sit back and watch it bleed

I think your losin' grip
Tell me which one of your faces?
Betta hold your breath
Runnin' right outta time, baby your in too deep
Tell me which one of your faces?
