

Body & Soul (Heatzy Remix)

Mikkim & M.C. Turner

When I fall I fall, I fall real hard and go tumbling down.
No more gallavanting, no more games, no more running around.
Can't even count all the times I passed it off as fantasy,

A sickness? A madness? What is this that's suddenly come over me?

Is it lust? Is it a resurrection or maybe just
A heart and brain infection?
Or will it cost body and the soul, our cause is lost, or at least beyond my control.

Man means woman, baby come follow me! Both caught in the emotion of our soul unity,
We rolling with you daughter, starting new family
And taking a leap of faith to make promise eternally.
Were gonna walk this road together we gwann pair up solid,
We take our imperfections and we start to polish.
The love, you better believe I wear it,
When the fire burns bright we light it up and share it!
